

Vote Yes on Amendment 1.

Q Why should marriage in South Carolina be restricted to a man and a woman?

A While thousands of South Carolina single parents earn their Super Parent wings every day, there is little disagreement that the gold standard for rearing children has always been a mom and dad, a husband and a wife. We should strive to provide children the benefit of the unique gifts a mother and a father bring to parenthood.

- ✓ Children raised by a mother and a father enjoy better physical & emotional health and are less likely to be poor.
- ✓ Children raised by a mother and a father are more successful in school and are less likely to become pregnant, abuse drugs, or be arrested or incarcerated.
- ✓ Children raised by a mother and a father are less likely to witness or be victims of domestic violence.

Why does South Carolina need a Marriage Amendment Campaign?

- ✓ Same-sex couples are getting “married” in Massachusetts right now.
- ✓ States may recognize these Massachusetts “marriages,” because they don’t have laws or Constitutional Amendments to stop them.
- ✓ SC has a simple marriage law, but it is in danger of being voided by activist courts.
- ✓ Constitutional Amendments, on the other hand, more strongly reflect the views of the people, and are much more difficult for courts to ignore.
- ✓ Defeat of the SC Marriage Amendment could force recognition of Massachusetts marriages in South Carolina.

If we allow marriage to mean anything in South Carolina, it will mean nothing.

We must take action now to pass the SC Marriage Amendment on Nov. 7th.

- Yes! I pledge to vote for the South Carolina Marriage Amendment on November 7th!
